THE ESCLER LUTHERAN CHURGE AND ITS PARTOR.—In a conversation with Rev. S. B. Barnitz, of the English Lutheran Church, whose health seems how considerably shattered, from overwork, we learned that for over sixteen years he has been doing pastoral and missionary work in this city, with little or no "Iet-up" or rest. The Church over which he presides was commenced with but fifteen members, not one of them having wealth, and the promise of salary for the firstyear was only $100. Mr. Barnitz has financiered and managed every detail of all the work these many years, until now the handsome lot and well-built chapel and Sunday School room, which cost nearly $22,000, have on them only a bonded debt of seven thousand dollars. The interest on this has been so promptly met, that persons holding the bonds would be very loath to part with them at par. Even the principal of the debt was reduced several hundred dollars during the past year, and the current expenses of the Church promptly met. Of a sympathetic nature lay, and having, as he says, known much sorrow personally, Mr. Barnitz has seldom or never refused any service among the sick, the needy or distressed, and these things with constant financial pressure, and three services each Sunday, with anxiety about the Children's Home and similar institutions of his own Church, have proven too much for his physical system. The congregation of the Eng. Lutheran Church have, with great unanimity, and at personal sacrifice, decided to elect a supply, thus giving entire relief to their, minister for months to cone. Mr. Barnitz's hope of enfire recovery is in absolute rest of body and mind. If we mistake not he told us that during the scarlet fever epidemie a year or so sago, he attended thirty-one funerals in one month, and even within the past two months as many as four in one week. Mr. Barnitz has seemed to belong to the city rather than to a church or a denomination, and there is therefore much kindly sympathy rather than to a church ora denomination, and there is therefore much kindly sympathy manifested for him. There are comparatively few homes, either among the rich or among the middle classes or the poor, where Mr. Barnits has not ministered in times of sorrow, and hence the many well wishes for his entire recovery.

ATTEMPTED SCICIDE.—Maud Stanley has to some time past been one of the most notivious members of the demi monde in this city. She came here from a neighboring town in. Ohio, and, having run away from home, assumed a fletitious maine and became an inmate of a well known bawdy house on the South Side. There she became acquainted with a fast youth of the town who persuaded her to go and live with him. For a time everything went well with the twain, but of late they have frequently quarreled, and it is said on good authority even indulged in hair pulling and fisticuffs.

good authority even indulged in hair pulling and fisticuffs.

One of these little breezes occurred on Thursday night, and the young man left the house declaring that he would me'er come back again, while the girl threatened suicide if he didn't. Mand had been in the habit of taking small quantities of morphine at regular intervals, and but an hour or so before had purchased at a drug store a grain and a half of the drugenough to produce death. The girl swallowed the whole of this, and lay down to die.—She soon became violently ill, and an inmate of the house, becoming alarmed at her condition, hastily summoned a physician. The prompt arrival of the medical man, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, no doubt saved her life. The usual antidotes were administered, and with the best results, as Mand was last night out of all danger, and rapidly recovering. When questioned by the physician as to the cause of her attempt at self-destruction, the poor girl only answered that she was "tired of life." We believe this is not the first time she has attempted her own life. Perhaps, after while, the suicide business will become monotonous, and she will conclude to setter while, the suicide business will become monotonous, and she will conclude to set the down calmly and live out her alloted Water street carrying an umbrella, and when at the corner of Spence, Baggs & Co.'s foundry they were met by Fritz Long and Wm. Eberling, of Wheeling, who took the umbrella from the boys and continued their way down town. The boys ran home and told the older Rothermond boys of the affair, and Charley and Henry started after the young bucks and succeeded in overhauling them at the lower end of town, where in the course of events Charley Rothermond collared Eberling, who drew a large knife from his pocket and commenced cutting Rothermond, and inflicted a very severe cut across the arm near the shoulder, and a second cut along the upper side of the arm about Lut along the upper side of the arm about Lut who was in North Wheeling. PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS. - "Our Boardin PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.—"Our Boarding House."—An immense audience greeted the first appearance of Leonard Grover's comedy combination in "Our Boarding House," at the Opera House last evening. There was hardly a vacant seat in the house, and the company and the piece presented were in every respect worthy of their cordial and enthusiastic reception.

presented were in every respect worthy of their cordial and enthusiastic reception. The comedy is brilliant, original, unconventional and entertaining. It is ingeniously constructed, and, possessing no striking literary merit, it is yet full of the escentials of a good-acting comedy. Full of rich situations and dramatic incidents, from first to last it moves along without any dragging; the interest never flags, and the fun is continually up to the boiling point. A description of the play, or a criticism of the characters and actors, would give no one any adequate idea of the piece. The play is well calculated to please, and we advise those who have not seen "Our Boarding House" to embrace the present opportunity. A matinee will be given this afternoon, when the admission will be 50 and 25 cents, and the engagement of the company will close with a performance in the evening. All who go to see "Our Boardiers" will find them pleasant people, indeed.

The "United States Dispensatory."—
The standard authority for physicians and druggists gives much useful information not obtainable elsewhere, but we notice that either by oversight or intention some formulas, of the excellence, and highly esteemed by the people, were omitted—among them "Lawson's Curative," which has given such universal satisfaction for the cure of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and nervous diseases. We can safely say that no other remedy has performed so many cures and stood the severe tests as this medicine; and any one afflicted with either of the above diseases has only to use it as directed to be completely cured. There is no need of consulting a physician, for you can buy a bottle of medicine for your aches and pains at one-quarter price, which will cure you.—Detroit Com., Oct. 12.
